Ameritege Acquires Cayenta Multi-Channel Commerce Unit

Company re-emerges as "Assist-Cornerstone Technologies"

SALT LAKE CITY, UT – August 1, 2002 – Ameritege has completed the acquisition of Cayenta's Multi-Channel Commerce business unit from The Titan Corporation. Titan purchased Assist-Cornerstone Technologies in 1999 and the group has continued operations from its Salt Lake City location as an independent business unit of Titan's Cayenta subsidiary. Details of the financial transaction were not disclosed.

Ameritege is a technology holding company with a focus on enterprise software businesses that have a demonstrable history of delivering solutions to the markets they serve. Ameritege brings a seasoned management team with software development expertise, a commitment to develop leading IT solutions, and a successful track record of managing its portfolio companies.

The company will re-claim the name Assist Cornerstone Technologies – the company's name prior to becoming an operating unit of Cayenta. Tom Fracisco will continue to lead the company as President of Assist. Over the past few years, Assist has expanded its direct-to-customer order management and fulfillment solutions to serve businesses that require integrated IT solutions to manage multi-channel sales and marketing initiatives. They have also released Assist WebStore, a comprehensive solution for managing the Web as an integrated part of overall multi-channel commerce.

"We believe that our ability to focus on our core markets and the technologies necessary to provide leading IT solutions to our customers will be well served by this action," said Tom Fracisco, President of Assist. "We are excited by the opportunity this gives us to improve our focus and continue to grow our business."

"We are very excited to have Assist join Ameritege," said Oran Thomas, President of Ameritege Technology Partners, "and we are encouraged by the market opportunities for their software products in light of today's rapidly-changing needs for integrated multi-channel retail solutions. We intend to continue investing in Assist, its products, customers, and the employees who deliver multi-channel commerce solutions to the market."

About Assist-Cornerstone Technologies:
